

Cookie Notice

Last Modified on 02/04/2021 3:34 pm EST

The CCPA requires that consumers be made aware of their rights "at or before the point of collection," which essentially means that there should be some form of notification on your website at the consumer's point of entry, no matter what page that may be.

We have provided a "cookie" notice that will fulfill this purpose, and inform any visitors as to their CCPA rights and provide an affirmative button indicating that they understand these rights, as well as a link to the relevant section of the Privacy Policy.

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the SimplePart website. It includes a dark blue header with navigation links: Customers, Research, Inventory, Settings, and Help. Below this is a blue bar with several buttons: Recent Orders, Search Orders, News, and Reports. On the right side of this bar are three search boxes: Edit Order (Order #), Edit Product (Stock code), and Find Customer (Name), each with a Go button. A View Site button is located in the top right corner.
